Subject : Recollection Module via Canvas

We have begun another academic year. This school year, however, is different from the previous ones. Much has been disrupted by the COVID-19 pandemic. Our recollections and retreats have likewise been affected. Nonetheless, we will continue to offer our spirituality sessions albeit in a new platform – fully online. We, in Campus Ministry, deem it necessary to provide our students an avenue and time to reflect in a deeper way their personal and social experiences of the pandemic. In the process, we hope that they see where God has been present, and thereby get a sense of meaning from their existing context.

Our recollection module, The Ignatian Examen: Finding God, will be offered via canvas, our official LMS. The module will be asynchronous and will be made available on the following dates:

- 1) September 28 – MBA Standard Program & Middle Managers MBA Program
- 2) October 5 – Ateneo-Regis MBA Program and MBA in Health Program
- 3) October 12 – Master in Entrepreneurship Program,
Master in Corporate Entrepreneurship Program, and Master in Entrepreneurship
(Social Enterprise Development) Program

The Recollection being asynchronous will give students a leeway in going through it at their convenience and according to their pace. The module is pegged at two hours. Although it is not mandatory, we highly encourage you to go through it with the hope that it will help you see the importance of “finding” God and of being attuned to His presence in your daily life.

For further details about the recollection, you may email us at cmo.aps@ateneo.edu.

Be assured of our prayers for all of you during this trying time.

Thank you.
